Health Advocate Employees Make Donation to the Senior Adult Activities Center of Montgomery County

Plymouth Meeting, PA: June 23, 2010 – Health Advocate™, Inc. employees recently donated $200 to the Senior Adult Activities Center of Montgomery County. Mary Jane Wahl, Site Manager of SAAC, visited the company's Plymouth Meeting headquarters to accept the donation, which will be used to purchase a much needed BINGO game. Employees raised the money in a fundraiser called "Spring Splash," in which employees paid one dollar each to dress down on a designated weekday.

"We are thrilled by the generosity of Health Advocate and its employees," said Wahl. "Our mission is to enrich and empower adults over 50 to live as independently as possible in our communities. We do this through recreational, educational and social opportunities. Donations like Health Advocate's allow us to continue to offer these services to our members."

Health Advocate, which helps more than 18 million Americans navigate the healthcare system every day, is an industry leader when it comes to locating top-notch eldercare services.

"Our Personal Health Advocates often work closely with families who are looking for eldercare services," says Tara Kelly, Senior Vice President of Operations for Health Advocate. "SAAC has been a great resource for our local members and we wanted to find a way to give back."
